

CALL FOR PAPERS

13th

International Student Byron Conference
May 21-26, 2018

The Messolonghi Byron Society
Messolonghi Byron Research Center

Theme: “Byron and Fiction”

The Messolonghi Byron Research Center welcomes proposals for 20-minute papers to be delivered at the 13th International Student Byron Conference, to be held at Messolonghi May 21-26, 2018.

The conference theme will be “Byron and Fiction,” a topic that might be approached in various ways. Presentations might center on the fiction Byron read and was inspired by (for instance Tom Jones or Anastasius, or Memoirs of a Greek), fiction writers he inspired (the Brontes, Puskin, and many others), fictive representations of Byron (from Caroline Lamb’s roman a clef Glenarvon to William Gibson and Bruce Sterling’s cyberpunk The Difference Engine, Ben Markovits’s Byron trilogy, and beyond)—or Byron’s own works considered as fiction.

Presenters at the conference will span all academic levels from undergraduates through graduate students, postdoctoral fellows, and faculty members. Proposals should be sent by email to Professor Peter Graham (pegraham@vt.edu) and Mrs. Rodanthi-Rosa Florou, President of the International Byron Research Center (byronlib@gmail.com) by February 1, 2018.

Further conference details will follow soon.
